Saturday, June 5th at 8:00 A.M. was approved with June 12th to be used as a rain date. It was agreed to meet at Elby's for Breakfast before going to the work site.

The Electronic Flea Market was discussed in detail. Jan Hall stated that the Lycorning Mall site was not the best place to hold the Flea Market.

He thought that taking the merchandise to a Hamfest was a better alternative. Jan made a motion to hold this Flea Market at the Wilkes-Barre Hamfest which is sometime in July. And was seconded by Elmer Sanduslager. And was approved by all present. A Committee was set up to organize this. The Committee people are:

- Jan Hall, N3HQH,
- Gary Burkert, N3KCG,
- Alan Wheel, N3CUB,
- Kevin Bernardi, N3MFL.

Other members also volunteered their services to help with the stands at the Hamfest.

Under New Business Jan Hall, N3HQH brought up the idea of having a Club Picnic this summer. Jan stated that the picnic could be held at his QTH.
